PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES / COMPOUND PREPOSITIONS

PREPOSITIONAL PHRASE:

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with a noun or pronoun (called the object of the preposition). It may include modifiers (adjectives, articles) in between. It shows relationships of place, time, direction, or manner in a sentence.

Formula: Preposition + (Modifiers) + Object (Noun/ Pronoun)

Examples:

- in the room
- on the table
- at my school
- under the big tree
- with great care

COMPOUND PREPOSITION (Complex Preposition):

A compound preposition is made up of two or more words that work together as a single preposition to show relationship between elements in a sentence.

Structure: Multiple words functioning as one preposition unit

Common Patterns:

- Preposition + Noun + Preposition (in front of, at the top of)
- Preposition + Article + Noun + Preposition (by the side of, at the edge of)
- Other combinations (because of, in spite of, according to)

Examples:

- in front of the house (3 words = 1 compound preposition)
- on the top of the mountain (4 words = 1 compound preposition)
- by the side of the road (4 words = 1 compound preposition)
- because of the rain (2 words = 1 compound preposition)
- in spite of difficulties (3 words = 1 compound preposition)
